

Eastern Hognose Snake – NH State Endangered

Know your NH Snakes – This is a native harmless snake and should never be harassed or injured.

Penalties include fines up to $2,000 and a year in jail (RSA 212-A)

Key Feature:
Upturned nose

Michael Marchand Photographs

Hognose snakes may hiss, spread their necks, and/or play dead but they rarely bite. – Coloration can vary widely.

Report all sightings of this snake to NHFG at 603-271-2461 or RAARP@wildlife.nh.gov - Photographs encouraged

For more information on New Hampshire's 11 native snakes, see <http://www.wildlife.state.nh.us/Wildlife/Nongame/snakes.htm>