

Environmental Pathways in the Classroom A Project Learning Tree and Project WILD Workshop

Tuesday, April 6th (2 hrs), Saturday April 10th (4 hrs)
and Thursday, April 15th (2 hrs)

Bedford, NH

About this Workshop

This workshop will introduce formal and non-formal educators to the award-winning curriculum materials of Project Learning Tree (PLT) and Project WILD. These programs are designed to take forests, and wildlife, and make them real for students. Activities are easily infused into everyday school subjects and busy classrooms. Each is aligned with national and state curriculum frameworks.

At the workshop, you will receive the following:

- Hands-on experience with classroom-ready activities and resources
- PLT's award winning PreK-8 Environmental Education Activity Guide
- Project WILD's K-12 Curriculum and Activity Guide
- Supplemental materials specific to the natural resources of New Hampshire, to support each of the guides
- Staff development credit for in-service educators
- Great posters and much more

"This workshop, along with the materials, will be an unbelievable tool for me! I am excited to implement them into my classroom."
